And to ſeveral other bills.

Mr. Ball, belonging to the general Exciſe Office, is appointed Collector for the Iſle of Man.

It is now ſaid, that by reaſon of many important matters ſtill depending, the parliament will not break up till the latter end of June.

Among the intended regulations in favour of the North American colony trade, a repeal of the ſugar act, and of the act for reſtraining paper bills of credit, &c. is expected to take place this ſeſſions.

This week Robert Charles, Eſq; Agent for New York, received diſpatches from the Aſſembly of that province, which, we hear, are preparing to be laid before the Parliament.

This morning the third battalion of the twenty-firſt or Royal North British Fuzileers, commanded by the Earl of Panmure, marched for Portſmouth to embark for Penſacola and Mobille.

It is ſaid that three great perſonages will be ſent to ſome of our American ſettlements, with a commiſſion to enquire into the ſtate of public affairs, and examine what foundation there is for ſuch a variety of complaints againſt certain of the Governors.

MAY 14.

Information has been ſent to the Admiralty-Office, that on the 29th of laſt month, the ſnow Charles-Town, of Charles-Town, in South Carolina, whereof Robert Mills was maſter, bound to Cowes in the Iſle of Wight, with a cargo of rice, ſtruck upon the rocks of Brehar, one of the Scilly Iſlands, and was loſt; that the crew with difficulty preſerved their lives; and that part of the cargo and materials of the ſhip are ſaved.

There is a report that his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter will ſet out ſome time next week for Portſmouth.

It is ſaid his Excellency Lord Northumberland, Vice-Regent of Ireland, will ſet out for Ireland on affairs of importante, as ſoon as the parliament breaks up.

We hear an act of bankruptcy, calculated for the uſe of the American colonies, is now upon the carpet.

This morning a large body of Weavers waited upon his Majeſty at St. James's, praying that ſomething might be done for their relief before the riſing of the parliament.

We can aſſure the public, a foreigner of known abilities in earthly materials, has invented a Cement which will effectually prevent all injuries from worms, leaking, &c. done to ſhipping; beſides preſerving theth a great number of years longer.

MAY 16.

Orders are given for three companies of the royal regiment of artillery to be in readineſs to embark for the Weſt Indies and North America, to compleat a battalion now on that ſtation.

Laſt monday morning the regiment of Young Buffs and Scotch Fuzileers, embarked from off ſouth-Sea Beach, at Portſmouth, on board the tranſports at Spithead, for Penſacola.

His Majeſty was attended yeſterday to the houſe of Peers by the Earl of March and Lord Cadogan; when he gave the Royal Aſſent to the Regency Bill. The lottery, &c. Bill. The Iſle of man Trade Bill. The bill to alter the rates of poſtage. The bill to lay duties on coals exported. The African export bill. And alſo to ſeveral other public and private bills.

A prodigious number of Spitalfields weavers followed his Majeſty from St. James's to the houſe of Peers, with black flags carried before them.

Yeſterday Prince Mazarino, the Spaniſh Ambaſſador, had an audience of his Majeſty's ſecretaries of ſtate, on affairs of importance.

They write from Peterſburgh, of the 17th paſt, that an offenſive alliance was concluded and ſigned the latter end of March laſt, between the Empreſs of Ruſſia and King of Denmark.

This day his Majeſty went to the Houſe of Peers, and gave the royal aſſent to the following bills, viz.

The bill to provide for the adminiſtration of the government, in caſe the crown ſhould deſcend to any of the children of his Majeſty, being under eighteen years of age.

The bill to prevent the illicit trade now carrying on to and from the Iſle of Man.

The bill to apply the ſum granted to pay and cloath the Militia, for the ſervice of the preſent year, &c. &c.

It is talked that on Tueſday next the parliament will be prorogued, and an end put to the preſent ſeſſions of parliament.

It is confidently aſſerted, that the right hon. Mr Pitt will be included in the number of illuſtrious perſonages appointed in the ...

... that a new treaty of commerce is pretty far advanced between the courts of London and Peterſburg.

... is ſoliciting for three diſtinguiſhed Northern Ex... who were concerned in the rebellion in 1746.

... portation of American bar iron for ſubſtantial reaſons to be encouraged.

MAY 18.

We have the pleaſure to be informed, that the Right Hon. Mr. Pitt reſted tolerably well laſt night, and is much recovered from his late feverous indiſpoſition.

Yeſterday morning his Grace the Duke of Bedford ſet out from his houſe in Bloomſbury-ſquare for Woburn-Abbey.

The Board of trade held laſt night was on the moſt ſpeedy and effectual meaſures to be taken to ſuppreſs the further importation of foreign manufactures, till a total removal of this national grievance can be obtained next ſeſſions.

Letters from Leghorn contradict the report, that Paſchal Paoli had retired with his adherents from the neighbourhood of Baſtia, on the firſt orders of the French general; on the contrary, the power of the Malecontents is ſo much ſuperior to that of Count Marbeuf, that the republic have been obliged to reinforce him with freſh troops from Genoa.—It is added, that the fifth article of the convention between the French and Genoeſe was about to be reverſed.

We are aſſured, that the laſt propoſal of the French court, regarding the payment of Canada bills, have not been accepted.

We hear that the Hon. Eaſt India company have received advice over land of a great battle, fought on the 23d of October laſt, between the Engliſh army, commanded by col. Munro, and the black army under the command of Coſſim Ali Cawn, which laſted near nine hours, when victory declared for the Engliſh, who routed the enemy, and took their whole camp, &c. There was great ſlaughter on both ſides.

Yeſterday morning about 3000 weavers were drawn up in Moorfields by beat of drum, from whence they marched again with black flags to St. James's.

Yeſterday morning the guards marched from Somerſet houſe and the Savoy, to prevent any further inſults being offered to a noble peer or his houſe.

It is ſaid that upwards of 500 journeymen weavers have been diſcharged ſince Monday laſt, for want of employment.

Yeſterday morning a very conſiderable number of Spittlefields weavers aſſembled again, and went to Old Palace Yard, adjoining to the houſe of peers; the crowd was ſo great that the peers could not get to the houſe; on which a party of guards, conſiſting of horſe and foot, were ordered to keep off the populace, where they continued till the houſe was up; when the weavers departed from thence, without committing any act of violence. In their return great numbers of them ſtopped at the houſe of Mr Carr and Co. on Ludgate Hill, and broke all the windows in the front of the houſe, and probably would have proceeded to further acts of violence, had they not been prevented by the arrival of the Lord Mayor, and ſeveral of the aldermen, with proper aſſiſtants; on which they diſperſed.

A court of aldermen had previouſly met yeſterday evening, in order to conſult on proper means to prevent any riots that might happen on the daily aſſembling of ſo numerous a body of men.

A little after nine at night a troop of horſe grenadier guards came to Ludgate-Hill, to ſupport the civil magiſtrates.

Some thouſands of weavers, &c. had alſo tumultuouſly aſſembled in Bloomſbury-ſquare; upon which a large party of horſe and foot were ſent to prevent any acts of violence. It is ſaid two men and a woman were killed in the crowd.

The guards from the Tower did duty on Thurſday night in Moorfields.

MAY 19.

On Monday next Colonel Oughton's regiment of foot, now at Portſmouth, is to embark from thence for the new ſettlements in the Weſt-Indies.

It is now confidently affirmed, that the marriage of the Hereditary Prince of Denmark, with her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Carolina Matilda, will not take place this year.

No time is yet fixed when his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York goes abroad, tho' it is certain ſuch a tour to the continent is in agitation.

They write from Hamburgh, that there does not appear to have been any other grounds than mere conjecture for the reports lately circulated of an approaching conjugal alliance between his Poliſh Majeſty, and a great potentate in the North.

We hear moſt of the cruizing veſſels and cutters, ſtationed to prevent what has imprudently been called ſmuggling in North-America, except ſuch as are to watch the French in the Gulph of St. Lawrence, &c. will ſpeedily be ordered home, on account of ſome conſiderable regulations now on the carpet, much to the advantage of his Majeſty's plantations.

RAN away, July 15, 1765, from the ſubſcriber's plantation on Wando, a tall likely (yet down-looking) negro fellow, named GEORGE; has loſt his upper fore-teeth, was born in St. Kitt's, and ſpeaks very good Engliſh; had on when he went away an old blue jacket, and a pair of light blue colour'd breeches; and carried with him a canow about fifteen feet long, four feet wide, ſplit on one ſide, with a ſhort chain, and no ſtem-head.

As this fellow had run away lately, pretended to be a free man, and on his way to Georgia was intercepted by captain Miles, at Ponpon, 'tis probable he will endeavour to get off the province; all maſters of veſſels, &c. are therefore forwarned not to carry him off.

Whoever delivers him to the warden of the work-houſe, or to me in Charles-Town, ſhall have THREE POUNDS reward.

JOHN ROSE.

Mr. [illegible], who was well known about [Charles-Town] of LEITH, but is now called SCIPIO; [when] Dean, he ran away and called himſelf [illegible], was committed to Savannah-Jail half a year. He had on when he went away a blue cloth jacket, faced and collar'd [with] new purple mixed cloth waiſtcoat, trimmed with gold [lace] ton-holes, and gilt buttons, a pair of old leather breeches [dyed] of black, ſo that it is probable he may change his dreſs, and change his name, and (pretending to be free) attempt to leave the province, all maſters of veſſels and others are hereby cautioned againſt carrying away; as are all other perſons whoſoever againſt harbouring or employing him, on pain of being proſecuted with the utmoſt rigour.—Whoever takes up and delivers him to the warden of the work-houſe, or to me in Charles-Town, ſhall have a Reward of Twenty Pounds.

The ſaid run away has been twice taken ſince his elopement, once at a dance up the Path, and ſince at ſome ferry on Cooper River, and made his eſcape: He had on each time the ſame [illegible] coat. 'Tis ſuſpected that he is gone towards Georgia.

THE Rev. Mr. Gibart, who arrived here in April last year, with the French Protestants that have formed the settlement of New-Bourdeaux in Hillsborough-township, has succeeded so well, in attending the culture of Silk, that with very little assistance he raised 160 pounds weight cocoons this year, upon the plantation of Gabriel Manigault, Esq; called Sun-Hope; out of which he has got 9 pounds of fine drawn Silk, and will be able to draw 14 pounds more. A proof, that this valuable manufacture may easily be brought to perfection here, by those who will give any attention thereto.——Mr. Gibart goes for England next week, and carries the silk and two boxes of cocoons with him.

By Captain Catlin, who arrived here last wednesday from Havana, we learn, that Don Diego Antonio Manrique, the new Governor of Cuba, who arrived there the 26th of June, died at Havana the 15th of July: That the Conde de Riela, the former Governor, sailed for old Spain the 20th, in a frigate: That no troops were gone to take possession of New-Orleans: That the 7 transports which brought the troops from Spain with the new Governor, were to leave Havana the 26th of July (the day after Capt. Catlin sailed) on their return, under convoy of a man of war, having on board some relieved troops, and a considerable quantity of treasure: And, that the Spaniards are rather more than usual watchful to prevent the English making any discoveries in regard to the works that are carrying for the defence of the place.

This day arrived here from Cape-Fear, William Morris, Esq; (whose brother Morris Corbyn, Esq; is one of the commissioners of the customs in England) lately appointed surveyor and controller of his Majesty's customs in this province, in the room of William Randall, Esq; to whom another department has been allotted.

The ship Nancy, George Forrester; the snow Polly, Samuel Henshaw; and the sloop Mary, John Lavigne, all from New-York; and a brigt. Capt. Marshal, from Philadelphia, are arrived at Havana.
